The total auction amount made from the branches of AEA's joint auction held on the "first" "Tuesday" of every month, starting at "3" p.m. of May exceeded NT$120 million

The various branches of the Administrative Enforcement Agency of the Ministry of Justice (AEA) held the joint auction held on the "first" "Tuesday" of every month, starting at "3" p.m. on May 6, 2025, the eve of Mother's Day, where each branch brought out a variety of "treasures" for the general public to bid on. The auction site of each branch was full of enthusiastic visitors, with the total auction amount as high as NT$129,324,557.

The total amount made from the joint auction of real properties reached NT$109,777,409, and the total amount made from properties was NT$19,547,148. AEA continues to actively cooperate with the procuratorate in handling auctions of entrusted cases. The joint auction of May also auctioned several items entrusted by the procuratorate, with the total final bid amount reaching NT$45,560,888. The real properties with the highest auction price came from the land in the Linnei Section of Niasong District seized by the Kaohsiung District Prosecutors Office from the scam syndicate "XXX Mutual Aid Association", in which four parcels of land were auctioned for an amount of NT$32.199 million. The auctioned item was originally registered as owned by an investment and development company. The company's shareholders first recruited members by establishing the "XXX Mutual Aid Association" and illegally collected money. They then used the illicit proceeds to further collect money illegally to establish a company and use illicit proceeds to purchase real properties registered under the company's name or deposited it into the bank account under the company's name. There were more than 2,000 victims in the case, and it was the fourth auction for the item whose the proceeds from the auction would greatly increase the possibility of compensation for the victims. The second highest amount came from the auction of the real property in Gangshan District by the Kaohsiung Branch, which was confiscated in a fraud case at the request of the Taichung District Prosecutor's Office. The total amount was as high as NT$13,361,888, making the second auction with successful final bid. The procuratorate and administrative enforcement units, which are all part of the Ministry of Justice system, jointly combat crime, especially scam crimes that are deeply hated by the general public of Taiwan, by handling auction of entrusted cases, so as to safeguard the rights and interests of the general public. In order to implement the government's key policies of comprehensively preventing fraud, the various branches of AEA have also actively combined the joint auction held on the "first" "Tuesday" of every month, starting at "3" p.m. to carry out anti-fraud propaganda to the people participating in the auction, so as to enhance the general public's awareness of fraud prevention.

The joint auctions are held on the "first" "Tuesday" of every month, starting at "3" p.m. Anyone interested is highly recommended to participate in the bidding to obtain what is desired the most. You may visit the official site of AEA or the auction pages at official sites (<http://www.tpk.moj.gov.tw>) or the Facebook fan pages of the branches to learn about the latest information of the auctions, allowing you to keep up with the trends of all best offers.
