Joint Auctions prior to Moon Festival were a big draw.

A new all-time high auction amount: NT$237,944,807

The AEA branches launched joint auctions across the country on Sept 4th in the lead-up to the Moon Festival. A wide variety of items were offered in the auctions, attracting huge crowds to join the bidding. Real estate items and movable properties that were auctioned off fetched NT$237,944,807 in total. A helicopter of SunRise Airlines that the Taipei branch failed to auction off during previous auctions was eventually auctioned off for NT$4.78 million.

Real estate items auctioned off included: A building in Wanhua District, Taipei City, which the Taipei branch auctioned off for NT$9.01 million; 5 lots of land and buildings in Shihlin District, Taipei City, which the Shihlin branch auctioned off for NT$28.18 million; 2 lots of land in Sanchung District, New Taipei City, and 5 lots of land on Wenhua Road in Banqiao District, New Taipei City, which the New Taipei branch auctioned off for NT$36 million and NT$8.71 million, respectively; 3 lots of land and a building in Longtan District, Taoyuan City, and a building and its associated land in Pingzhen District, Taoyuan City, which the Taoyuan branch auctioned off for NT$99.5 million and NT$3.9 million, respectively; a lot of land and two buildings in Dali District, Taichung City, and two buildings in Beitun District, Taichung City, which the Taichung branch auctioned off for NT$15.03 million and NT$12.31 million, respectively.

Real estate items auctioned off this time fetched NT$230,576,954, marking a new record.

In addition, movable properties auctioned off by the AEA branches across the country reached NT$7,367,853.

The Taipei branch auctioned off coral ornaments, bottles of Golden Dragon and Peony-class Kinmen Kaoliang liquor, bottles of Bernard champagne, bottles of perfume, sunglasses, and jade pendants and earrings of obligor Wongji Jewelry for NT$150,000, attracting many interested people. The Shihlin branch auctioned off a Mercedes Benz sedan for NT$180,000. Other items including jade articles, tea products, name-brand women's clothing and share certificates of Chentek Industrial Enterprise Company were auctioned off for over NT$140,000. The Taoyuan branch auctioned off a sedan and a motorcycle for NT$170,000 plus and NT$40,000 plus, respectively.

The Kaohsiung branch auctioned off a bridge crane for NT$150,000.

The Ilan branch auctioned off two CMC vans for NT$100,000 and NT$20,000 plus, respectively. The Hsinchu branch auctioned off 6 gold bars for NT$1.27 million.

People participating in the auctions were happy about the bargain sales. The auctions also helped the government secure outstanding taxes and fees.

To better serve buyers, the AEA branches across the country now offer mobile payment services, including Apple Pay, Samsung Pay, Google Pay (Android Pay) and Taiwan Pay. Mobile payment is easy and convenient. We welcome you to make more use of it.
